“Illinois has such a supportive and friendly environment for International Students”

– Maria Alejandra Maldonado Adrian, LL.M. 2007

The highly-personalized Illinois LL.M. experience provides you with open door access to some of the leading scholars in law in the United States. The Illinois LL.M. degree program provides much more than just an outstanding array of excellent classes in U.S. law – it also provides you with a gateway to the U.S. legal profession!

One of the oldest international LL.M. programs in the world, the University of Illinois College of Law offers its highly-competitive LL.M. degree program annually, admitting up to 50 foreign lawyers. Illinois LL.M. students are fully integrated into the traditional J.D. classes with selected and varied practical training opportunities. With nearly 10,000 alumni worldwide, the College of Law invites you to join a remarkable global network and interact with the U.S. legal profession.
